

Marty Goetz

"LIVE"

Marty Goetz has been called a modern day psalmist. His songs are scriptures beautifully set to music, leaving listeners spiritually moved, inspired and educated. With melodic and fresh acoustical/classic arrangements, Marty Goetz has the ability to lead you into a place of true intimacy with God.

In 1965, when thirteen year-old MARTY GOETZ stood at the bimah of Cleveland's 'Temple on the Heights' for his Bar-mitzvah and solemnly sang the ancient words of the Torah, no one -- least of all Marty -- could have envisioned that some twenty years later he would be singing to God, this time as a featured performer at Billy Graham's Rally in Central Park.

'Let me recommend Marty Goetz' ministry to you! There are few music ministries as bright, creative, and refreshing as Marty's and it's my delight to introduce you to him if you've not met before. He and his wife, Jenny, have been a faithful part of the congregation here and are trusted in their life, character and witness for Jesus Christ.

The striking distinctive to Marty's ministry are not only his uncanny capability at lifting a congregation through song, but the special touch of depth and humor -- in beautiful combination--which comes as a result of his Jewish background. Marty will be a blessing to you. I know, because I have watched him bless our congregation!

Alison grew up in Liverpool with a Jewish father and a Gentile mother. She started to believe in Jesus as the Messiah when she was sixteen years old. After graduating from university she became an accountant and then a primary school teacher and worked all over the world, including Spain and Hong Kong before going to Bible College in 2005. She met Barry at a Jews for Jesus event in 2005 and married in March 2007. She now works full time with Jesus for Jesus.
